About Gérald:

Gérald has been practicing yoga for over 20 years and teaching for 14. He discovered Ashtanga Vinyasa Yoga in 1991 with Sri K Pattabhi Jois in Mysore, India. He spent 8 years traveling to Mysore spending 4 – 6 months per visit to learn more of the system, then going off to some other exotic location to practice daily what Gurujī had taught him. Gérald was taught up to the third series and was one of the first French students to have been personally authorized to teach by Sri K Pattabhi Jois. As he had learned directly from the Guru at a time when there were not so many yoga students in Mysore, he started to give workshops around the world. He gave Ashtanga workshops in Australia, New Zealand, and around the USA and Europe.

Gérald has also studied extensively with Ron Reid and Marla Meenakshi Joy. In addition to his Ashtanga yoga practice, he is also a student of Sri O.P. Tiwari and is able to teach kriyas and pranayama. Gérald has done extensive stays in Vipassana silent meditation centers in India and Australia and continues to cultivate a daily meditation and pranayama practice.

During his travels he visited Auroville, an international spiritual community in Tamil Nadu, South India. He related with the place immediately. It was a way for him to remain connected to the spirituality of India and also still have connection to the west, so he decided to build a house and a yoga shala and become a part of the Auroville community. Gérald spent 5 years there teaching daily Ashtanga Mysore style classes in between his workshops around the world; until 2004 when he decided, after being away for 17 years, to move back to France. Gérald is now settled in Paris where he has founded a beautiful community of yoga with Linda and their children.

About Linda:

Linda was first introduced to yoga in 1996 in Toronto, Canada with Ron Reid and Diane Bruni. She had been in a car accident in 1995 and was in physical therapy when she became interested in yoga as a way to compliment the therapy. Soon after she realized that the yoga would be a life time practice. A practice of asana, pranayama and meditation but also a practice of being truthful, a practice of being kind, a practice of being fearless, peaceful and happy. She believes that the practice of "yoga" is continuous; the practice does not stop when you roll up the yoga mat. The practice of yoga includes the way you live your life, the way you relate to your family, friends, co-workers and to the strangers on the street. This is the lifelong practice of developing yogic awareness.

In 1997 she moved to New York City with her work in the fashion business while continuing a daily ashtanga practice studying under Eddie Stern. The year 2000 brought her to Paris, France. After thirteen years in the world of fashion she decided it was the time to move fully into the direction she had been moving since her first yoga class. She felt a strong desire to strive to give to others what her teachers have given to her; so she started teaching yoga as her own study and practice continues. Gérald and Linda opened Ashtanga Paris in February 2004.

She studies yogic scriptures and philosophy, having completed a 250 hour study program of Patanjali's Yoga Sutra, and a 120 hour course on the Bhagavad Gita under the supervision of Georg Feuerstein. She now is one of his 10 mentoring students and continues studying the Sutras and the Gita under his guidance. She is also a student of Sri O.P. Tiwari and is certified to teach kriyas and pranayama.

Linda's completed teacher trainings with David Swenson, Mark Darby and two with Ron Reid and Marla Meenakshi Joy. In addition she has studied with Sri K Pattabhi Jois in Mysore, India as well as twice in New York City. She considers Ron, Marla, Tiwari and Georg her yoga teachers from a far. And her husband, Gérald, along with their two young children, Amaya and Jonathan, her primary daily yoga teachers!
